

OIRCC 2010 SHOW

PRESS RELEASE

March 16, 2010

The Sixth Annual Song Contest of the Western Roller Canary Association will be hosted by the Oakland International Roller Canary Club (OIRCC). The OIRCC is the oldest Roller Canary Club in the United States, having been established in 1923. This year the Roller Song Contest is being held from December 9th to 11th, 2010 in Alameda, California at the Coral Reef Inn & Suites, 400 Park Street, Alameda, California 94501-6231. Please mention the Oakland International Roller Canary Club when making reservations at the Coral Reef Inn & Suites (510-545-4139).

The Judge for this contest will be Fred Proebstel, a long time Roller Canary Judge of Dixon, Montana.

All Roller canaries bearing a closed band from a recognized Roller Canary Club are welcome. Entries will be accepted at the Coral Reef in room 251 from 8:00 am to 7:00pm December 9. If you are shipping in your birds please contact either of the individuals below and obtain instructions for shipping your birds and Entry Forms and Show Rules.

The 2010 Show Manager Steve Billmire Email: stevesbirds@comcast.net Phone: 510-449-3881 or Justin Agrella, President Phone: 510-562-7879 Email: jpagrella@earthlink.net.

Judging will commence promptly at 0830 am on Friday December 10th.

For more information about the Show or Oakland Club, please visit the OIRCC Website at www.oircc.20x.cc

It is expected that the 2010 song contest will have a large number of teams. It will also be followed on Saturday, December 11th with a Song Clinic where the Judge and experienced breeders will discuss important aspects of breeding, training, and contesting Roller Canaries. Members of American Singer, Waterslager and Spanish Timbrado groups are always welcome and will certainly enjoy the Song Clinic on Saturday December 11th at 11:00 am. This is a good time for visitors to hear the best birds in the golden state!
